OLPH Cagers Blast St. Francis, 60-30

Two of the top clubs, Blessed Sacrament and St. Joseph, drew byes for yesterday's competition, but there was still plenty of important Intermediate CYO hoop action at the Bradley gym.

OLPH put on its best show of the season in blasting St. Francis, 60-30. The winners were in a ball-game until the last quarter when they ripped St. Francis by a 24-3 margin. George Tremblay dropped in 22 points to lead the OLPH attack. Phil Messier and Dan Beetz were high men for the losers with nine apiece.

St. Catherine also experienced little difficulty in whaling St. Edmund, 78-42. The winners opened up an awesome 44-18 halftime lead and coasted to the finish. Phil Lester led all scorers in the game with 21 big points. Rick Labrie hooped 13 for the losers.

St. Pius X, under Coach Ken Faggiano, chalked up its first win of the campaign, edging St. Jude, 56-48. Ken Hudson had 14 to lead Pius. Bob Jankowski swished 12 for St. Jude which wasn't out of it until the last few moments of the game.

St. Anne built a comfortable cushion of St. Hedwig and went on to post a 49-38 triumph .Ray Gagne was the big gun with 23 points. Muggsy Mazalewski led Hedwig with 20.

New England CYO Tourneys In Manchester on Weekend

Pairings for the two New England basketbabll tournaments—the CYO Grammar school tourney and the CYO Prep tourney—were announced here Monday night by Rev. Colin MacDonald, diocesan CYO sports director.

Both tournaments will be played in Manchester Saturday and Sunday, with finals of the two tournaments scheduled to climax the two days of basketball Sunday afternoon at Bishop Bradley High school gymnasium.

Five schools are entered in the grammar school play and seven will compete in the prep tourney.

Pairings and schedule for the grammar school tournament's opening round at St. Joseph school gymnasium: Saturday, 1 p. m., St. Lawrence O'Toole of Hartford, Conn., vs. St. Pius of Providence, R. I.; 2 p. m. St. Mary of Dover vs. St. Michael of North Andover, Mass.

Winners of the opening round games will draw to see who enters the finals, with loser of the draw to play St. Joseph of New London, Conn., in the semi-finals Saturday evening at 7 in Bishop Bradley gym. Finals will be at the Bradley gym Sunday afternoon at 2:45.

St. Mary of Dover is undefeated in 22 games while St. Pius has a record of 23 victories and no defeats.

Pairings and schedule for the opening round of the prep tourney: Saturday, 12:45, St. Paul of Cranston, R. I., vs. St. Anne of Manchester; 2:15, Sacred Heart of Taftville, Conn., vs. Holy Name of Springfield, Mass.; 3:30, Most Precious Blood, Hyde Park, Mass., vs. St. Francis Xavier of Waterbury, Conn.

Winners of the first two games will play their semi-final game Saturday evening at 7:45, with the winner of the third game meeting St. Mary of Greenwich, Conn., in the other semi-final at 9:15. Finals are at 4 p. m. Sunday. All games in this tournament will be played at Bishop Bradley High gym.

The Sacred Heart team of Taftville comes into the tournament with a record of 26-1 while Holy Name of Springfield has a 22-3 record. St. Anne of Manchester is 12-3 and St. Francis Xavier finished the season with 14-1.

All teams in both tournaments are state champions, except in Massachusetts and Connecticut where the state is divided into two divisions, each with a titlist.

Blessed Sacrament Trounces St. Pius

Powerful Blessed Sacrament continued its unbeaten ways in the Manchester Intermediate CYO League as it trounced St. Pius in action yesterday, 64-26.

Baseball pitching star Bobby Peacock pumped in 23 points to spark the Memorial attack. Ken Hudson had 12 points to rank as high man for St. Pius. The winners trailed early but scored 42 points in the middle two periods in rolling up the win.

St. Hedwig compiled a comfortable three-period lead and coasted into the winner's circle ahead of St. Patrick, 48-40.

St. Raphael pulled away from OLPH in the second half to post a 54-40 victory. Dick Smith led the winners with 13. Tom Walsz had 10 and Dave Riley 10. Gene Tremblay with 15 and Joe McDowell with 14 led the losers.

In the fourth contest St. Anne rolled to a 63-40 win over St. Edmond. Bob Murray and Ray Gagne had 17 apiece for the winners. Rick Labrie flipped in 10 for St. Edmond.

Blessed Sacrament Routs OLPH, 56-29

Strong Blessed Sacrement, picked by many as the team to beat in the Manchester Intermediate CYO League, overcame a rocky start and went on to rout OLPH, 56-29, in a big game yesterday in the program at the Memorial gym.

Memorial High's fine all-around athlete Bobby Peacock dropped in 21 points to spark Sacrement to a commanding lead after the heavily-favored quintet had fallen behind, 11-7, at the end of the first period.

Noonan High Man

Tom Noonan, a Bishop Bradley football player, hit 10 points to be high man for OLPH.

In a thriller, St. Catherine went down to a 44-43 defeat at the hands of a scrappy St. Anne quintet. The game was tight all the way. St. Ann gained a 22-17 halftime lead, but St. C fought right back to tie the game after three periods.

The two clubs then went at it nip-and-tuck down to the wire.

Muggsy Mazalewski, a Central football star, hurled in 18 points to pace his St. Hedwig quintet to a 39-33 win over St. Edmond. This contest was also a stalemate after three periods, but St. Edmond went ice-cold from the floor in the last quarter, netting only three points.

St. Raphael roared to a 17-3 first period lead over St. Francis and coasted to a 68-27 triumph. Walsz led all scorers with 13 points.

Weston Cagers, St. Joseph Win Bradley Games

In the fourth night of action of the Grammar School Tourney being held at the Bishop Bradley gym, a quick-moving Weston team defeated Blessed Sacrament, 30-24, and State CYO champ St. Joseph nipped St. Hedwig, 32-28.

Paced by huskey Bill Trisciani's six points in the final period of play, Weston came from behind to gain its victory over a taller Blessed Sacrament team.

Weston had led all the way until the third session when the South End's Ed Fox got a hot hand flipping in two hoops to give BS a momentary lead. However, Trisciani along with a fine Weston freeze decided the tilt.

Fox was high man for the losers with 12 points and Bill Hood took honors for the winners with 10.

Similar to the first game, the second was neck and neck all the way and again partly decided by a neat stall, this one by St. Joseph. Leading the Manchester power to victory was the fine play of Jack Stanton, who contributed 14 points to his teams effort.

St. Hedwig, with John Szelog doing the heavy work, could come no closer than a tie early in the third quarter. Bob Camirand of St. Joseph salted the game away with a hoop and a foul shot during the last frame.

Stanton was high for St. Joseph with 14, while Szelog was tops for the game with 17.

Play will continue next Monday with Gossler Park meeting St. Catherine and Lincoln facing St. Francis.

St. Anne Five Wins Second Game of Year

St. Anne, not considered a threat in the Manchester CYO basketball picture this season, swept to its second win of the season yesterday and St. Joseph, one of the pre season picks to take the city-title, opened its season with a win.

The Cinderella team of the early season, St. Anne dumped St. Pius X, 45-36, while the Cathedral five edged St. Jean, 33-31.

Right Guard Billy Cunan fired in 20 points to lead the St. Anne attack. Once the perennial power in the CYO ranks, St. Anne has been meandering in the doldrums for several seasons. However, yesterday it held St. Pius to two points in the second period and outscored its opponent 18-9 in the final quarter to register its second win.

Bobby Cadwallader netted 12 points to pace the come-from-behind Cathedral win. Trailing 12-5 after one period, St. Joseph took command in the second quarter to take a 19-16 halftime edge.

The score was tied after three periods but Cadwallader and company pulled out a real squeaker.

Tommy Rzasa contributed 16 points in OLPH's win over St. Patrick, 59-50. Jerry Montminy scored 28 points in a losing effort for St. Pats.

In other games yesterday, St. Francis whipped St. Jude, 43-21; St. Catherine dumped St. Hedwig, 34-26; and St. Raphael pounded out a 59-33 win over Blessed Sacrament.

CWV Post 1341 Sets January 4 Date for Dance

Rescheduling of the St. Hedwig Post 1341, CWV, Fall Dance on January 4 was announced today. Originally scheduled for November 23, it was postponed along with virtually all other social events in the nation because of the assassination of President Kennedy.

Stanley Zajdel, dance chairman, also announced that because of the proximity of dates, members of the Pulaski Club have been induced to switch their traditional New Year's Eve Party from the conventional December 31 to January 4.

Thus the new joint effort dance party will be January 4. It will be limited to members of the club and post together with their guests. Seating will be available for approximately 300. Admission will be by ticket only.

The sale of tickets will be restricted but all tickets previously purchased will be honored. Some tickets are still available and may be purchased at the Pulaski Club or from members of the post. No tickets will be sold at the door.

Refreshments will be served and Polish culinary specialties will be available.

Comdr. Stanley Fryc announced that the post awarded a Thanksgiving basket to Mrs. Anna Zankowski of Bedford.

Blessed Sacrament Edges St. Raphael

Blessed Sacrament, hard-pressed from the outset, nonetheless continued its winning ways in the Manchester Intermediate CYO basketball League yesterday afternoon, posting a 56-53 victory over scrappy St. Raphael.

The winners fell behind after the first period, 14-9, but rallied to win a close decision on the hot-shooting of Dick Chrzaszcz and Bobby Peacock. The former collected 21, the latter 17.

Tom Walsz was high for the losers with 23.

St. Joseph, another strong club in the loop, trimmed St. Hedwig, 53-43, but not after a tough struggle. St. Joseph led by just a scant point going into the final quarter and poured it on with 23 points in the last quarter.

John Pratt had 18 points for St. Joseph while Muggsy Mazalewski swished 17 for St. Hedwig.

Ken Hudson pumped in 22 points in sparking St. Pius to an easy 60-37 victory over St. Francis. The winners piled up a 37-14 halftime lead and coasted to victory.

In the final game of the day OLPH trounced St. Jude, 61-42 as Joe Remanna and John Madden each hit 11 points.

Powerful OLPH Cagers Top St. Joseph, 61-50

For the second straight week, OLPH, pre-season favorites, knocked a team from the undefeated ranks in Manchester CYO play.

This week St. Joseph fell victim to the powerful OLPH quintet.

Paced by two 21-point quarters, the second and fourth, and a strong 16 point effort by Center Frank Flynn, OLPH swept to its fourth straight win, 61-50. Bob Cadwallader and Don McGuigan led the losers with 12 points each.

In other action, St. Pius downed St. Patrick, 47-34; St. Catherine rolled over a weak St. Jude team, 46-23; St. Raphael took St. Hedwig, 49-45; St. Edmond edged St. Jean, 65-60, in a closely-fought contest, and St. Anne fought off a determined Blessed Sacrament five to win, 36-26.

CYO Conducts Cheerleading Tournament

By PAUL DIETTERLE

DOVER — St. Hedwig of Manchester and Holy Rosary of Rochester became state cheerleading champions before a capacity audience at St. Thomas Aquinas High School gymnasium.

A quartet of judges viewed the best cheerleading efforts of 32 parish CYO and parochial high school teams over a three-hour period before announcing the state titlists.

St. Hedwig won the CYO crown while Holy Rosary was tops among parochial high school cheerleaders.

Members of the Holy Rosary squad are Diane Lagueux, Shirley Roulx, Jeannina Gingras, Rita Savoie, Diane Gauthier, Sue Bergeron, Paul Bergeron, Priscilla Bergeron and Paoulette Nadeau.

The St. Hedwig team consisted of Mary Kazanowski, Donna Machos, Kitty Tkacz, Sandra Swierz, Lois Kustra, Linda Coviello, Sandra Abrzewcynski and Linda Garczynski.

Finishing second and third respectively among CYO teams were St. Stanislaus, Nashua, last year's champion; and St. Francis Xavier, Nashua. Remainder of the six finalists were St. Pius X (10th), Manchester; St. John Baptist, Suncook and St. Joseph, Nashua.

Notre Dame of Berlin finished second among high school teams. Others among the five finalists were Bishop Brady, Concord, St. Thomas Aquinas, Dover, and St. Marie, Manchester.

Special awards went to Notre Dame in the high school division and St. Joseph of Nashua in the CYO group for having the most original cheer.

Judges were Mrs. Lawrence Towne, Dover; Mrs. Don Tibbetts, Mrs. Judith McCarty and Rachel Plante, all of Manchester.

Chairman and master of ceremonies for the tournament was Francis McNally of Dover, athletic chairman of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Youth. Rev. Lawrence Burns, administrator of St. Thomas Aquinas, was host to the gathering. Rev. Vincent Lawless, assistant diocesan director, assisted Msgr. Colin A. MacDonald, diocesan CYO director, who presented the awards.

The first three CYO teams will compete in the first annual New England cheerleading contest at Worcester, Mass., in April.

Four Contests Feature Local CYO Hoop Play

St. Hedwig, Blessed Sacrament, St. Patrick, and St. Joseph emerged victoriously in CYO action yesterday at the Bishop Bradley Gym.

St. Hedwig took a quick 14-12 first quarter lead, and never relinquished it while dropping St. Catherine, 51-46.

St. Patrick managed to stave off a third period scoring binge by St. Edmond, and pulled out a 53-38 win. After leading 26-8 at the end of the first half, St. Patrick saw its lead cut down to a mere four points at the end of the third frame.

The losers tallied 22 points in the third period, while St. Patrick had to settle for eight. However, St. Pat's got hot hands in the last period and outscored St. Edmond, 19-8, to win.

Bob Peacock riddled the nets for 20 points, to lead Blessed Sacrament to a 48-40 win over St. Jude. St. Jude failed to score in the opening period, and at halftime was trailing, 22-11. It wasn't until the last quarter that the losers finally began to hit, but Blessed Sacrament, leaning on a comfortable 16-point lead, coasted to the win.

In the final game of the afternoon St. Joseph romped to a 55-33 victory over St. Anne.

CYO Basketball Action Features Four Games

St. Catherine, St. Hedwig, St. Joseph and St. Francis all captured victories Wednesday in CYO Grammar School League hoop action at the St. Joseph gymnasium.

St. Catherine defeated OLPH in a nip and tuck contest, 20-15; St. Hedwig opened its season with a 19-15 win over St. Pius X; St. Joseph took Blessed Sacrament, 23-16 and St. Francis walloped St. Raphael, 22-9.

St. Francis, St. Joseph and St. Catherine are deadlocked for the league lead with 2-0 records each. St. Hedwig is next with a 1-0 mark.

CYO Cheerleaders' Tourney This Sunday

The Catholic Youth Organization will conduct its fourth annual Cheerleaders Tournament on Sunday, Feb. 9, at St. Thomas Aquinas High School gymnasium, Dover, beginning at 2 o'clock.

This year's tournament will see 33 teams from parish CYO's and parochial high schools striving for championship honors in two divisions — High School Division and CYO Division. St. Stanislaus CYO of Nashua, last year's champion, is entered again in this year's competition.

Cheerleader teams entered in order of appearance, beginning at 2 o'clock, are: St. Mary, Dover; Pease Catholic Chapel; St. James, Portsmouth; St. Mary, Newmarket; St. Joseph, Manchester; St. Patrick, Pelham; Holy Angels, Westville; St. Pius X, Manchester; St. Stanislaus, Nashua; Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Manchester; and Sacred Heart, Laconia.

High School Event

This will be followed by competition in the High School Division. Teams in their order of appearance are: St. Thomas Aquinas, Dover, Junior Varsity; Sacred Heart, Laconia; Holy Rosary, Rochester; Bishop Brady, Concord, Junior Varsity; St. Mary, Claremont, Varsity; Bishop Brady, Concord, Varsity; St. Marie, Manchester; St. Patrick, Berlin.

Following a short intermission, the second half of the CYO competition will take place. Teams in order of appearance are: St. Michael, Exeter; St. Raphael, Manchester; Infant Jesus, Nashua; St. Francis Xavier, Nashua; Blessed Sacrament, Manchester; St. John the Baptist, Suncook; St. Bernard, Keene; St. Joseph, Nashua; St. Hedwig, Manchester; St. Catherine, Manchester; St. Anne, Manchester.

Five Finalists

Following a second intermission, the judges will choose five finalists in each division — High School and CYO — to give their favorite or best cheer. A Champion, Second and Third place will then be chosen in the CYO Division, and a Champion and Runner-up in the High School Division. The first three in the CYO Division will compete in the first annual New England CYO Cheerleading Tournament to be held in Worcester, Mass., in April. Awards will also be made for the most original cheer in each division.

Chairman of this year's tournament is Francis McNally, Dover, Athletic Chairman of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Youth. The Reverend Lawrence Burns, Administrator of St. Thomas Aquinas High School, is the host and the Reverend Leonard Spillane, Rockingham - Strafford Deanery CYO Director, will assist him. The Very Rev. Msgr. Colin A. MacDonald, Diocesan CYO Director, will present the awards.

St. Joseph Five Routs St. Edmond, 38 to 15

St. Joseph remained undefeated in local CYO action by thumping hapless St. Edmond, 38-15. In other action Sunday afternoon at St. Anselm College gym, St. Anne remained tied with St. Hedwig by eking out a 35-32 victory over St. Raphael in one of the top games of the afternoon. In another close contest, St. Hedwig beat OLPH 33-29 to remain tied with St. Anne in second place. In the other game, St. Catherine squeaked by St. Pius, 34-32.

St. Joseph virtually clinched first place in the standings by beating St. Edmond Cathedral led at one point, 28-6. Pacing the St. Joseph five was Jack Hoben with 11 points. Leading St. Edmond was Bill Labrie with nine points.

Dave Briton led the St. Anne victory over a determined St. Raphael five. St. Raphael made a desperate bid for the victory in the last quarter, but fell short by three points. Leading the St. Raphael attack was Dick Gage with 12 points.

St. Hedwig needed a strong last quarter to defeat unlucky OLPH. Close throughout the first three chapters, St. Hedwig, paced by the shooting of Jan Skrzxzowski, who garnered 10 points, and Ronnie Felch with nine, finally subdued OLPH. Leading OLPH was George Tremblay, who dropped in 10.

Joe Padden led the attack for St. Catherine in that game. Eddie Thompson and Bill Audet sparked St. Pius with nine and eight points respectively.

St. Joseph CYO Routs Boys Club

The powerful St. Joseph CYO quintet recently ended the prosperity of the Manchester Boys Club Varsity quintet by stunning the Clubbers, 76-57.

St. Joseph raced to a commanding 28-12 first period lead on some torrid shooting and experienced little difficulty in wrapping up the victory. Keough led the winners with 23 points while Jim McQueeney flipped in 13 to lead the Boys Club.

Stevie deGrandmaison hit 16 points and Lance added 13 in sparking the Boys Club Junior varsity to a 50-37 win over St. Hedwig Grammar School. Szelog poured in 21 to lead the losers.

The winners pulled away from the game Hedwig five in the second half.

St. Hedwig To Honor 2 Groups

Two St. Hedwig CYO groups will be honored at a testimonial banquet at the church hall on April 26 at 6 p. m.

The special groups to be honored at the banquet are the junior CYO basketball team, under the supervision of Coach Earl Felch, which won the City Basketball Championship, and the intermediate cheerleaders, under the supervision and guidance of Mrs. Anne Machos, coach, won the state competition.

The committee, representatives of various Polish Church organizations of St. Hedwig parish, include Chairman Stanley Zajdel; Co-Chairman Alex Plodzik; Matilda M. Bykowski, publicity chairman; John Lubelczyk, ticket chairman; Helen Pieton, Irene Dudziak, Dorothy Ayotte, William Plodzik and Jane Albrewczynski, adult advisor of CYO.

St. Hedwig Team Finishes Fifth In Cheerleading

WORCESTER, Mass. — New Hampshire Champion St. Hedwig finished fifth here in the annual New England CYO Cheerleading Tournament held Sunday at Worcester Boys Trade High.

Winner in the 18-team field was St. Anne of Worcester. Other New Hampshire teams competing in the affair were St. Stanislaus and St. Francis, both of Nashua.

St. Anne Rolls To 25-15 Win In CYO Action

In the CYO Grammar School loop, St. Anne, St. Hedwig and St. Joseph each coasted to easy victories. St. Ann defeated St. Pius, 25-15; St. Hedwig beat OLPH, 30-13; and St. Joseph went past St. Francis, 36-22.

Rick Petrowski and Dave Larkin put in nine and eight points respectively to lead St. Anne to the win. St. Pius was held to a meager point in the first period of play.

Big John Szelog hit the nets for 10 as he led St. Hedwig's to the convincing win.

St. Francis couldn't get off the ground against St. Joseph's and the latter took full advantage, outscoring the losers 17-4 in the inital period.
